LISTLESS CONTEST WON BY PETERSBURG

Colts Evidently Tired, Failed to Connect With Hamilton's Benders and Lost Game via Shutout Route-Featureless Affair Stopped After Seven Innings. umn. Spencer, for the visitors, was incapacitated in the first frame, and he retired in favor of Pritchard. About the only other event worthy of mention occurred in the first inning, when Truck Egan, after fouling nearly twenty bails, siammed one into the left field bleachers for a double. Richmond was unable to score because Hamilton served up a brand which was not to the liking of the stickers. There were several opportunities to score, but they remained opportunities. In fact, the very first inning looked hopeful. Dobson and Wallace had both died tamely, the former from Busch to Kellher, and the latter from Bowen to the same gentieman. McCabe hit to centre, and Egan doubled, ground rules preventing McCabe from scoring.

BY GUS MALBERT

What are the odds that we win to-ay? Looks as if it is up to Reveile o turn the trick.

If trying to get Ric. mond in faster company is heresay, then charge the crime down in the book. If helieving that Richmond is just as g od a town as any now in the Eastern League, is against the opinion of some who represent the powers that be, then mark that down, too. But Richmond is going to have that franchise in the Eastern League if it is for sale, even though it hurts the feelings of those who would hate to see it happen. The fat is in the fire, and there will be cooks enough to watca it while it is sizzling.
